Vaccination Requirements

Feline: Rabies and Distemper

Canine: Rabies, Distemper, Parvovirus, & Infectious Tracheobronchitis

If no verification of up to date vaccinations is provided, a physical exam and any needed vaccinations will be given. This is for the safety of your pet and all pets in our care. You will be responsible for any accrued cost associated. Our facility follows NC State University Veterinary School's recommendation that all dogs should be vaccinated against kennel cough every 6 months.

Emergency Protocol

Your pet will not be seen by a veterinarian unless you request it or a team member notices an issue/concern that needs medical attention. These conditions will be treated as conservatively as possible.

In the event of non-life threatening situations, we will make every attempt to contact you prior to treating your pet. If there is a life threatening emergency we will treat your pet first and then contact you. If you would like to give us a maximum amount of funds you are willing to allocate in case of an emergency please do so below. This is not required in order for your pet to receive medical treatment.
